Room News (Bumble Bees)

This month we have had lots of new children joining our room and we have loved getting to know each one of them and spending plenty of one-on-one time with them. We have been doing lots of tummy time and mark making activities to celebrate handwriting week, and we have been continuing to follow the children's interests with some amazing activities.

Room News (Busy Bees)

This month we have enjoyed enhancing our room, we are looking at the areas of the room and developing them to focus on the interest of the children. We have explored lots of lovely tuff spot activities and enjoyed learning about ice and how it can melt to become water and freeze to become ice. We enjoyed exploring the garden and listening to the different birds. This month we have introduced the interest crates, we will be exploring Darcie's interest of Peppa Pig, Cora's interest of the Lion King and Maya's interest of Animals and the story Rumble in the jungle. Please let your child's key worker know about anything your child particularly enjoys.

Room News (Honey Bees)

This month the children have taken a particular interest in the reading area and really enjoyed listening to our new stories, especially the story 'Zog'. They have loved our caterpillar music sessions lately, making their own music using the different musical instruments within the room. Some of the children have been showing interest in the potty, so we have been really focused on talking about what the potty is used for and carrying out role play activities using the dolls. We understand potty training is a big transition for the children, so we like to always make sure we support them throughout the journey and start when they are ready.

Room News (Worker Bees)

We've really enjoyed welcoming the children back to nursery this month after the Christmas period. All of the children have adapted really well to the new staff changes and have made the younger Busy Bees feel welcome in their new environment. This month we have been focusing on looking at solving puzzles as well as mindfulness. On the 23rd we celebrated handwriting day and encouraged the children to participate within a variety of writing activities.

Room News (The Bee Hive)

This month, Beehive have begun celebrating a variety of events that were or are upcoming. The children explored and learnt from our tuff tray about all the different religions and a few of their beliefs behind them and even attempted to draw their own religious symbols to celebrate

World Religions Day this month. We also introduced a new group of children to forest school where they gained an understanding about fire and even had the opportunity to toast their own croissants over it with our forest school teacher Nikita and the safety in putting it out as well as discovering what a hammock is and what it is used for.

Special Recognition

Sarah is the Deputy Manager and Room Leader of the pre-school room at Honey Pot Aigburth.

She has worked for the company for over 10 years and still has the same enthusiasm and passion for her role. She ensures the Nursery runs smoothly on a day-to-day basis, always putting the needs of her team before her own and helping and supporting the other Honey Pot settings. Sarah provides thought provoking activities that ignite awe and wonder in the children, and she also ensures that she provides the children within her care with an ambitious curriculum. Sarah works tirelessly to provide an Outstanding provision for all the children attending Honey Pot Aigburth. Well done, Sarah, you are a credit to the Honey Pot Team

Employee of the month

Olivia

This month Olivia has been awarded employee of the month. Olivia has worked hard over the past month and always offers to work extra for the nursery. Olivia is always helping other rooms, supporting staff. Olivia has exceptional bonds with her key group and works hard to enhance their development daily.

Room of the Month

Busy Bees

Busy bees have worked hard to make massive changes to their room whilst working hard through times of COVID & Chicken Pox. They have ensured the room is getting deep cleaned daily to prevent the spread. The staff have also been planning lovely activities and going for walks in the prams. Well done, Kirsty, Amy, Bonnie, Chloe S, Jess F, Bethany and Lauryn.
